

A TROPICAL PARADISE IN THE SNOW

In the early 1900s the Battle Creek Sanitarium featured a large, sunny palm garden in an all-weather sun porch off the lobby. Patients would gather under 20-foot banana trees and other delightful tropical vegetation to socialize and eat their meals, despite the cold Michigan winters.

No 3

TIME CAPSULE

Legacy Series | AdventHealth